

STATEMENT OF COMPLIANCE

San José City College maintains an atmosphere that is welcoming to all students and conducive to their academic and personal success. The College provides an environment free from all forms of harassment, in which students and employees are treated with respect and dignity.

San José City College does not discriminate on the basis of race, religion, color, ethnic group identification, gender, national origin, age, marital status, sexual orientation, organizational affiliation, political beliefs, veteran status, language accent, immigration status, ancestry, transgender, and physical or mental disability. Limited English skills are not a barrier to programs and services at the College. San José City College is in full compliance with:

- Title VI of the Civil Rights Act (1964)-pertaining to race, color and national origin;
- Title VII of the Civil Rights Act (1964)-pertaining to religion and gender;
- Title IX of the Educational Amendments (1972)-pertaining to gender;
- Sections 503 and 504 of the Rehabilitation Act (1972)-pertaining to disability;
- Age Discrimination in Employment Act (1974)-pertaining to age; and
- Americans with Disabilities Act (1990)-pertaining to disability.
