

EXTENDED OPPORTUNITY PROGRAM AND SERVICES (EOP&S)

The Extended Opportunity Programs and Services (EOP&S) is funded by the State. Its mission is to support our students in achieving their academic and personal goals by establishing "over and above" support services for income and educationally eligible students.

The EOP&S Program provides support with: priority registration, book vouchers, lending library, counseling (academic, career and personal), graduation expenses, transfer services (application waivers, tours), and resources on/off campus.

For more information, contact the EOP& Program: Phone: (408) 288-3788
Webpage: <https://sjcc.edu/students/support-programs/eop-s.aspx>

Nextup

The NextUp program goal is to increase access to critical support services for current and former foster youth. NextUp program services and resources can include, but are not limited to, counseling, book and supply grants, tutoring, independent living and financial literacy skills support, frequent in-person contact, career guidance, transfer counseling, and transportation assistance, and referrals to health services, mental health services, housing assistance, and other related services.

For more information, contact the NextUp Program Coordinator, Julio Flores: (408) 298-2181 ext. 3653, or the Program Specialist, Laura Zepeda (408) 298-2181.

For eligibility and additional program information visit our webpage: <https://sjcc.edu/students/support-programs/next-up.aspx>

EOPS/ALMASS

The ALMASS (Advocacy Leadership for imMigrant Access Support Services) is the voice of the AB540/DACA students at San Jose City College. The mission of the program is to provide access, built on the foundation of educational equity, social justice and opportunities for eligible students. The ALMASS program aims to empower AB540/DACA students, their families and college community in being informed leaders.

Through the collaboration with the Extended Opportunity Programs & Services, the ALMASS program encourages the enrollment, retention, and transfer of AB 540/DACA students at San José City College.

For more information, contact the EOP&S/ALMASS Program Coordinator: Olga Morales-Anaya, (408) 298-2181 ext. 3902 or the main EOPS office at (408)288-3788.

For eligibility and additional program information visit our webpage: <https://sjcc.edu/students/support-programs/almass.aspx>